The Vendor will supply to ATLAS the Goods and/or perform the Services in accordance with the Instructions in consideration of payment of the Price by ATLAS.

The Vendor's terms and conditions, howsoever provided, do not form part of these Terms and will be of no legal effect (even if any representative of ATLAS signs those terms and conditions and/or they are annexed to these Terms or any quote or purchase order). The parties agree that any amendments to these Terms can only be made in writing signed by authorised managers of both parties, including any inclusion of special conditions in or attached to any purchase order.

The parties' relationship is one of principal and independent contractor, not employer and employee or principal and agent. There is no partnership arrangement between the parties. No contractual relations will arise between ATLAS and any of the Vendor Personnel as a result of the Vendor and ATLAS's relationship. If, notwithstanding these Terms, there is a deemed employment relationship (as a result of any Employment Law) then the Price is in satisfaction of all minimum entitlements under the relevant Employment Law including (without limitation) any payroll or fringe benefit tax, superannuation contributions, workers' compensation claims, termination payments, salary, overtime, penalties and statutory leave.

Such induction will be at the cost of the Vendor unless otherwise agreed by ATLAS in writing.

The Vendor agrees that ATLAS may use a tracking device or other surveillance device at the Site and in relation to the Vendor in the course of the Vendor performing the Services.

3. Delivery and Time for Performance

The Vendor must deliver the Goods to the Delivery Address and/or provide the Services by the Delivery Date as required by the Instructions and these Terms.

The Vendor must ensure that the Goods are suitably packed to avoid damage in transit or in storage and in such a way to comply with any applicable Laws.

If the Vendor fails to deliver all required Goods and/or Services by the Delivery Date ATLAS may:

- (a) acting reasonably, reject all or part of the Goods and/or Services;
- (b) terminate the Agreement at any time until full delivery of all required Goods and/or Services by giving Notice to the Vendor and no payment or part payment for any Goods and/or Services undelivered or rejected will be payable;
- (c) set off against the Price any additional costs incurred by ATLAS as a consequence of the Vendor's failure to supply the Goods and/or Services by the Delivery Date; and/or
- (d) exercise any other rights or remedies available to ATLAS under these terms or any Law.

4. Title and Risk

Title in the Goods passes to ATLAS upon the earlier of the payment of the Price or delivery of the Goods to the Delivery Address. Risk in the Goods passes to ATLAS when the Goods are delivered to the Delivery Address.

5. Price

ATLAS will pay the Price for the Goods and/or Services in the Agreement after they have been delivered and/or performed PROVIDED THAT ATLAS is entitled to deduct, from any amount owed to the Vendor, the value of any claim ATLAS has against the Vendor under this Agreement or otherwise in relation to the Goods and Services.

On delivery of the Goods and/or completion of the Services, the Vendor must provide to ATLAS, if ATLAS directs, a Tax Invoice which includes:

- (a) a reference to the Agreement and these Terms including any purchase order or contract number;
- (b) a detailed description of the delivered Goods or performed Services, including the date of delivery and/or period of Services and the relevant quantity of the Goods and/or Services; and
- (c) an individual reference number for ATLAS to quote with remittance of payment.

If ATLAS requests, the Vendor must provide ATLAS with all relevant records to calculate and verify the amount set out in any Tax Invoice.

If ATLAS disagrees with the amount set out in the Tax Invoice, within 21 days of the date on which ATLAS receives the relevant Tax Invoice, ATLAS must give to the Vendor a payment schedule indicating:

- (a) the amount of the payment ATLAS proposes to make in relation to the Tax Invoice (including, if applicable, that ATLAS proposes to make no payment); and
- (b) why ATLAS proposes to pay an amount less than claimed or make no payment (as the case may be).

Provided that the Vendor has complied with the paragraphs above, ATLAS will pay each Tax Invoice provided by the Vendor within 30 days (or such other period as the parties agree) of the date on which the relevant Tax Invoice is generated (in the case of a recipient created tax invoice) or the date on which the relevant Tax Invoice is received by ATLAS, except where ATLAS:

- (a) is required by Law to pay within a shorter time frame, in which case ATLAS must pay within that time frame;
- (b) exercises any right to retain, withhold, reduce or set-off any amount due to the Vendor; or
- (c) is required by Law to withhold a portion of payment for Goods or Services rendered by a foreign contractor.

Payment by ATLAS does not constitute an acceptance by ATLAS that the Goods and/or Services are not Defective and does not in any way affect ATLAS's rights under the Agreement, these Terms or any law.

6. Quality

The Goods and/or Services must match the description (if any) referred to in the Agreement.

If the Vendor gives ATLAS a sample of the Goods or a demonstration of the Services, the Goods and/or Services must be of the same nature and quality as the sample or demonstration given.

The Goods and/or Services must be fit for the purpose for which Goods and/or Services of the same kind are commonly supplied or bought and for any other purpose ATLAS specifies.

The Goods must be of merchantable quality, unencumbered and (unless otherwise specified in the Agreement) new.

The Vendor must ensure that ATLAS has the full benefit of any manufacturer's warranties that may be applicable to the Goods (and the Vendor must pursue any manufacturer's warranties on ATLAS's behalf if ATLAS so requests).

The Services must be provided by persons who are appropriately licensed, qualified and trained.

If the Goods are Defective or otherwise do not comply with these Terms:

- (a) the Vendor must replace the Goods at the Vendor's cost. This clause does not prejudice ATLAS's rights to terminate the Agreement for breach; and
- (b) ATLAS may hold the Goods for the Vendor at the Vendor's risk. The Goods will be returned at the Vendor's cost.

- (f) the Vendor will (upon request) provide ATLAS with information about the System (including responding to ATLAS's reasonable queries about the System), or the privacy and security of its data, and the Vendor will immediately inform ATLAS of any breach or suspected breach of the System, and will use its best endeavours to rectify the breach as soon as practicable;
- (g) the Vendor, and all Vendor Personnel, will comply with all relevant policies and procedures of ATLAS;
- (h) it will take all steps needed to ensure that ATLAS is not subject to any claim or finding that the Vendor and/or any Vendor Personnel are deemed to be employees of ATLAS;
- (i) information, documentation and certification provided to ATLAS are accurate, valid and in good order;
- (j) the Vendor will not engage in any action that could conflict with ATLAS's rights or with the Vendor's obligations under these Terms; and
- (k) the Vendor is aware that ATLAS is relying on these warranties.

The Vendor indemnifies ATLAS in respect of any and all claims giving rise to liability on the part of ATLAS in respect of a breach of this warranty clause howsoever such claims arise.

8. Warranty Period

If, before the end of the Warranty Period, any of the Goods or Services are found to be Defective or otherwise fail to comply with these Terms, ATLAS may:

- (c) any damage to property or injury or death of any person caused or contributed to by the Vendor and/or the Vendor Personnel;

payments, annual leave and long service leave accruals and payments, notice payments, redundancy payments, unfair or unlawful dismissal verdicts and taxation (including, without limitation, PAYG tax instalment deductions, superannuation guarantee contributions and payroll tax payments) or any other such payments that ATLAS may be required to pay in relation to or arising out of the provision of the Goods and Services;

- (e) damage to or destruction of any property belonging to the Vendor or in the Vendor's possession or under the Vendor's control except to the extent the claim for such damage or destruction arises solely as a result of ATLAS's negligence or breach of the contract constituted by the Agreement by ATLAS; and/or
- (f) failure by the Vendor to comply with any Law including the payment of any taxes required at Law or in accordance with the Agreement or these Terms.

Where the Owner-Driver is obliged to take mandatory rest or meal breaks under a Law, such rest breaks will not be paid for as time worked. To the extent possible without otherwise breaching this provision, the Owner-Driver must take meal breaks at a convenient time to ATLAS having regard to ATLAS's requirements.

The Price paid by ATLAS for the performance of the Services or the delivery of the Goods is in full and final settlement of any statutory liabilities that may be payable by ATLAS to or in respect of the Owner-Driver.

Within 14 days of a party receiving a Notice, ATLAS and the Vendor and/or their delegates must meet and attempt to resolve the dispute in good faith.

Either party may, but need not, appoint a delegate/representative of their choice for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

If, within 14 days of the meeting, the dispute is still not resolved, then, either party may refer the dispute to litigation.

17. Suspension

- (a) If an Event affects, or is likely to affect the supply of Goods, performance of Services (whether under the Agreement or any other contract entered into by ATLAS), the Site or project related to the Instructions, ATLAS (acting reasonably) may by notice in writing to the Vendor suspend the performance of all obligations (other than an obligation to pay money due under the Agreement) required to be performed pursuant to the Agreement.
- (b) ATLAS must notify, and keep informed, the Vendor of the anticipated length of suspension resulting from an Event, and shall also give the Vendor a notice in writing specifying the date the suspension ends as soon as practicable once that date is determined.

- (e) If a party terminates the Agreement under this clause, all money previously paid under the Agreement for which no goods, services or other consideration has been provided, must be refunded.

18. Cancellation

- (a) ATLAS may cancel all, or any part of, an Agreement for Goods or Services with effect from 7 days after giving Notice. Upon receipt of a cancellation notice, the Vendor will, unless otherwise directed, cease work and follow ATLAS's directions as to disposal of work in progress and finished Goods.

- (c) ATLAS will pay for Goods delivered and accepted, and ATLAS's liability for the cancellation of Goods will be the lesser of:
 - (i) the Vendor's actual price for raw materials, components, work in progress and any finished units on hand at the time of such cancellation that are attributable to the cancelled portion of the Agreement; or
 - (ii) the Price per finished unit, after giving effect to any discount ATLAS would otherwise be entitled to, for the cancelled or a portion of the Goods.

19. Termination

- (a) The Agreement and these Terms may be terminated by a party (Non-Defaulting Party) at any time effective immediately upon the giving of Notice if:

 - (iv) the Defaulting Party suspends or delays payment of its debts;

 - (vii) the Defaulting Party (being a corporation) is deregistered; or
 - (viii) to the extent permitted by law, the Defaulting Party suffers an Insolvency Event.
- (b) The Agreement and these Terms may be terminated by ATLAS at any time effective immediately upon the giving of Notice if:
 - (i) a change occurs in the Vendor's circumstances which, in ATLAS's reasonable opinion, may have a material adverse effect on the Vendor's ability to comply with its obligations under the Agreement or fulfil its warranty obligations in respect of the Goods and/or Services. Examples include (but are not limited to):
 - (A) a change in the Vendor's financial position up and until an Insolvency Event occurring;

(d) The Defaulting Party will be responsible for, and will indemnify the Non-Defaulting Party against, any damages, costs (including, without limitation, legal fees on a solicitor-client basis), losses and expenses, incurred by the Non-Defaulting Party as a result of the breach.

(e) On termination of the Agreement or these Terms, each party retains its rights against the other party in respect of any past breach, in addition to any other rights, powers or remedies provided by law.

(f) The rights set out in these Terms comprise the Vendor's sole entitlements upon cancellation or termination of the Agreement.

20. Goods and Services Tax (GST)

Unless otherwise stated, the Price or other amounts payable by ATLAS to the Vendor, are exclusive of GST.

If a Supply under these Terms is subject to GST, ATLAS will pay to the Vendor an additional amount equal to the amount of the Price multiplied by the prevailing GST rate. The additional amount is payable at the same time as the amount payable for the supply is to be paid. However, the additional amount need not to be paid until the Vendor provides a Tax Invoice to ATLAS.

If the amount of GST payable is found to differ from the amount paid in relation to a Supply then:

(a) if the amount of GST paid is more than that is required under the GST law, the Vendor will refund to ATLAS the excess amount of GST paid to; or

(b) if the amount of GST paid is less than is required under the GST law, ATLAS will pay the difference to the Vendor.

If either ATLAS or the Vendor is entitled to be reimbursed or indemnified under the Agreement or these Terms, the amount to be reimbursed or indemnified by either party is to be the GST exclusive amount. For the avoidance of doubt, the amount of any reimbursement does not include any amount attributable to GST for which either ATLAS or Vendor is entitled to an Input Tax Credit.

21. Entire Agreement & Variation

The Agreement constitutes the entire understanding between the parties and supersedes all prior communications and agreements between the parties, including any prior written or verbal undertakings or statements. No variations to the Goods or Services required under the Agreement or to these Terms are to be made unless agreed in writing between ATLAS and the Vendor.

22. Accounts

The Vendor must not consider, or take any steps to sell, assign, factor or otherwise dispose of the Vendor's present or future rights to payments that are due to a sub-contractor of the Vendor (hereinafter referred to as "Account"), nor shall the Vendor encumber any Account without the prior written consent of ATLAS acting entirely in ATLAS's sole and unfettered discretion, any consent may be on such terms and conditions as ATLAS deems fit.

23. PPSA

Where ATLAS makes a payment in advance of delivery of any Goods, the Vendor charges the Goods (including any item identified for incorporation into the Goods) to ATLAS with its obligations under this Agreement and consents to ATLAS registering its interest in the Goods on the Personal Property Security Register and will sign all documents and provide all information and assistance required to effect that registration. To the extent that the law permits the Vendor waives its rights to receive any notice required from ATLAS (or any of its related entities) under any provision of the Personal Property Securities Act 2009 (Cth) (PPSA) (including a notice of a verification statement). However nothing in this clause prohibits ATLAS (or its related entities) from giving a notice under the PPSA or any other law.

24. Proportionate liability

The provisions of Part 1F of the CLA are specifically excluded from these Terms and have no operation or application to the rights, obligations and liabilities of ATLAS and the Vendor under these Terms with respect to any matter to which Part 1F of the CLA applies.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the parties agree that the provisions of Part 1F of the CLA:

- (a) are specifically excluded from any subcontract or other agreement entered into pursuant to these Terms by the Vendor; and
- (b) have no operation or application to the rights, obligations and liabilities of the parties under any subcontract or other agreement entered into pursuant to these Terms by the Vendor, with respect to any matter to which Part 1F of the CLA applies.

25. Privacy

ATLAS collects the Vendor's personal information for the purpose of acquiring Goods and/or Services and keeping a record of transactions on our file. Personal information can include sensitive health information as required by ATLAS from time to time.

26. Severability
